Luxembourg nationals over 75 years of age on election day are exempt from compulsory voting. However, they remain on the electoral roll and may, if they wish, participate in the elections.

Luxembourg nationals who live abroad and are therefore no longer on the municipal electoral roll may apply to vote in elections by postal ballot at their last place of residence.

Marriage

To marry in Luxembourg, the future spouses must be at least 18 years old. For minors, the consent of at least one parent is required.

Every marriage must be published for ten days in the municipality of residence of both spouses. For this publication, the future spouses must present themselves at the registry office with all the necessary documents at least two months (Luxembourg nationals) or three months (foreign nationals) before the date of the marriage.

The marriage must take place within 12 months of publication.

A religious marriage can only take place after a civil marriage. Therefore, sole religious marriage, i.e. without prior civil marriage, is strictly prohibited.

More information:
guichet.public.lu/en/myguichet.html

Childbirths

Every birth must be reported to the registrar of the municipality where the birth took place within ten days of the delivery, not including the day of delivery itself. If the last day of the deadline falls on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday, the deadline is extended to the next working day.

Caution! If you do not register within this deadline, a court decision is necessary for the delivery of a birth certificate.

Nationality & naturalisation

The acquisition of Luxembourg nationality by naturalisation, option or recovery confers on a foreigner the status of Luxembourger with all the rights and duties attached to it. The municipal official checks whether the requirements are met and proposes one of the different procedures to the applicant.

Moreover, in accordance with the principle of dual nationality, the applicant may now, under certain conditions, acquire Luxembourg nationality without having to renounce his or her original nationality.
